CRITERIA OF MAKING PAYMENTS TO NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

The Companies Act, 2013 and Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and amendment from time to time have enhanced the corporate governance norms to be complied by all Companies and dynamicbusiness environment have placed more onerous responsibilities on the Non-Executive Directors (NED).

With changes in the Corporate Governance norms brought by the Companies Act, 2013 as well as the Listing Regulations, the role of Non - Executive Directors particularly the Independent Directors and the degree and quality of their engagement with the Board and the Company has undergone significant changes. The Company is being hugely benefited from their expertise, advice and inputs. They devote their valuable time in deliberating on the strategic and critical issues in the course of the Board and Committee meetings of the Company and give their valuable advice, suggestions and guidance to the management of the Company from time totime.

The Company believes that the remuneration paid to its Non- executive Independent Directorsshould be reflective of the size of the Company and complexity of the sector/ industry/ Company's operations and should be consistent with recognised best practices. Overall remuneration (sitting fees and commission) should be reasonable and sufficient to attract, retain and motivate Directors aligned to the requirements of the Company, taking into consideration the challenges faced by the Company and its future growth imperative.

Contribution of the Non-Executive Directors in Board and Committee Meetings, time devotedby them, participation in strategic decision making, timely guidance to the Board on importantpolicy matters of the Company, performance of the Company and industry practices and benchmarks forms the main criteria for determining payments to Non-Executive Directors.

SEBI (Listing Obligations Disclosure Requirements), Regulations, 2015 provides that all fees/compensation, if any paid to non-executive directors, including independent directors, shall befixed by the Board of Directors and shall require previous approval of the shareholders in general meeting. Provided that, requirement of obtaining prior approval of shareholders in general meeting shall not apply to payment of sitting fees to non-executive directors, if made within the limits prescribed under Companies Act, 2013 for payment of sitting fees without approval of shareholders. In keeping with the above, any fee/remuneration payable to the NEDs of the Company shall abide by the following:
